From 1848 to 1868 the cemetery was managed by Commissioners elected by the City Council of Roxbury, and the City Treasurer was custodian of the funds of the cemetery.

In 1868, after the annexation of the city of Roxbury to Boston, the cemetery was incorporated, and the Trustees were elected by the Proprietors.

The name "Forest Hills" was selected by the Commissioners in 1848 and subsequently confirmed by an ordinance of the city of Roxbury.

Forest Hills avenue was laid out in its present form in 1867, excepting the triangular part next to Morton street.

A lot was set apart in 1863 for the burial of the soldiers and sailors who served as a part of the quota of the city of Roxbury during the Rebellion, and the monument thereon by Martin Milmore was erected in 1868.

West Roxbury set off from Roxbury May 24, 1851.

Roxbury annexed to Boston Jan. 6, 1868.

West Roxbury annexed to Boston Jan. 5, 1874.
